Proposed revision [redacted]

Approved For Release 2003/04/29 : CIA-RDP84-00780R003500070018-0

Personnel who are reassigned from a duty post outside the United States [redacted] for a tour prior to returning to a foreign area may be granted home leave of not more than 15 working days. (Annual leave may be approved in conjunction with home leave.)

STAT

Exceptions to the 15 work day limit may be approved by the Director of Personnel upon certification by a Deputy Director that conditions such as the following exist:

a. Additional rest and recuperation are needed because of service under particularly difficult circumstances.

b. An exceptional delay of home leave occurred because of operational requirements.

c. Serious personal or family problems warrant extended home leave.

DD/P recommends approval by Deputy Director upon request of operating officials.

9 Feb 70 -- Coordination, etc., still not complete,
